

BEAUTY»

20 Pro Tips To Get Your Skin Glowing In The Dead Of Winter

0

Pin Your Favorites!

Pin it

1 OF 21

It's not too late to work these healthy skincare rules into your current winter beauty routine. Click through for amazing pro ideas and to shop the key products to get your skin in shape for spring.

By Christa Joanna Lee
Digital Beauty Editor

As much as we wish our winter beauty look could be as easy as naturally flushed pink cheeks and fluttery, snowflake-dusted lashes, in reality most of us are battling flaky skin, chapped lips and redness during this brutal season. So we sent out a beauty S.O.S. to the top skin experts and makeup artists in the biz to give us their best product recommendations, DIY tips, makeup tricks and more to save our skin from the winter elements and prep it for spring. Read through above for 20 of their genius ideas.

Pin it

18 OF 21

"After you get out of the shower, towel yourself off but leave a little bit of water on your body. Use a body oil that is room temperature and massage it into the skin. The remaining moisture on your skin will help to disperse the oil onto all the areas you're addressing." —Dr. Stafford Broumand, NYC-based plastic surgeon and associate clinical professor of plastic surgery at Mount Sinai Hospital

FRESH FRESH LIFE BODY OIL, $48,
SEPHORA.COM

SHOP NOW